Join us as we celebrate Bata's residential, industrial and social legacy

Join us for a walk around East Tilbury exploring the residential, industrial and social legacy of Thomas Bata's Utopian vision from the 1930s and ending at Coalhouse Fort, for afternoon tea. During the walk, Sadie Hasler will lead a conversation, asking you to put yourselves in the shoes of your role model.

What do you aspire to achieve? What can we achieve here by walking together?
